

Knighly Adventures Abroad

Erica Ward
Paris, France

Advice to future study abroad participants: Remember that each culture had its similarities and differences. It is important to keep an open mind and be patient with the differences.

Complete this Sentence: If I could do it over, I would...plan my days better in order to see all that I want to see.

Majors: FLIS and Economics

Years/Term Abroad: Summer 2006

Name of program and why you chose it:

I chose the KIIS France I program because I wanted to spend five weeks in Paris and fulfill some general education requirements.

Describe the Housing Situation:

I stayed in a dorm setting. There were four people to a room with a bathroom and a shower.

Best Memory:

I enjoyed walking around at a food market and talking to the vendors in French.

How has this experience enriched your Bellarmine educational experience? I am no longer just learning facts, but how to learn and interact on a global scale.

Greatest Challenge: When I wanted to go out into the city, but knowing that I still had homework due the next day.

Experiences with Culture Shock or Reverse Culture Shock:

A person can be in a restaurant easily for two hours. Courses are spread out, and you normally have to ask the waiter for the check or you are waiting a long time after the plates have been cleared.

What you know now that you didn't know before going abroad:

If you do not want to look like an American tourist, do not wear shorts or white tennis shoes.

Being in a foreign country is exciting and nerve-raking at the same time. Nevertheless, every moment in that country has a purpose that will contribute to a person's life.
